Consider some of the benefits

- The continuing professional development gained through attending our regular information evenings and listening to the presentations of specially selected guest speakers. Note: Regional members are allocated a committee member to be their representative at meetings and to raise issues on their behalf.
- The opportunity to exchange ideas and experiences with professionals in your and allied fields, and enjoy the camaraderie that evolves through such meetings.
- Discounted premiums are available to our members for Professional Indemnity and Public Liability Insurances following negotiations between the IBC and Insurance Providers.
- The possibility of additional work through networking with fellow members and from your listing in the find-an-IBC member section of the Master Builders website.
- The IBC maintains contact with relevant industry bodies and keeps track of issues likely to affect the activities of members. The IBC will also represent member's views in regard to Government lobbying and other issues.
